INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determing the eligbility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records(filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. GEORGE D. HOPPER ET AL )

-- VS -- : #328. REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION. :

----------oOo----------

I, M.A.Gibson, Special Master, respectfully show to the Court that under the order heretofore made, I have examined the proof and pleadings in this cause, which are herewith filed and made a part hereof, and that I find as follows:

I

That this cause was instituted on September 1, 1896, at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes forcitizenship in the Cherokee Nation of Indians, which application was by said Commission denied, on October 22, 1896, no reason being given for the decision, and that the parties appealed therefrom on February 25, 1897.

II

That this claim was presented byGeorge D.Hopper, his wife Louisa and his children James, Flamler and Delbrit Hopper, by his son John R.Hopper and his wife Lizzie, and their children William I. and George D.Hopper, and by Leila Cook, the daughter of George D.Hopper and her children Charlie and Nettie; by Minnie Caulk, the [illegible] of George D.Hopper, her husband Lee, and their child Etta Caulk,- all of whom are residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and by Rhoda Smith, a sister of George D.Hopper, her husband Riley, their children John T. and Thomas A. Smith, and Adena A.Anderson, a married daughter, her husband Earl and their children Marvin, Alva and Ola Anderson, all of whom are residents of the State of Texas.

III

That the claimants file in support of their application the affidavits of F.M.Cambell, D.A.Maxwell, J.J.Britt, W.P.Smith, Tom White, Walter Christie, which affidavits show that the claimants herein are the children of Mary Hopper, who was the daughter of Amy Self, who was the daughter of John Gunter, who was a Cherokee Indian by blood, and who lived near the Tennesse River, among the Cherokee Indians.

IV

The claimants contend that under the law applicable to this case, they having shown that they are descended from John Gunter, who was a Cherokee Indian by blood, they are now entitled to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, while the appellee insists that the claimants having failed to show that John Gunter, the ancestor through whom they claim, has ever been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west to the present location, they are now barred from being admitted to Cherokee citizenship.

Premises considered, I find that the claimants are the descendants of John Gunter who was a Cherokee Indian by blood, and who lived on the Tennesse River, among the old Cherokee Indians. That Lucy D.Hopper and family reside in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and that Dessie Smith and her family are residents of the State of Texas. That they do not show that John Gunter, the ancestor through whom they claim, has ever been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and I further find that they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

I respectfully submit that the Court will enter an order as follows for the appellee herein, to-wit:

Respectfully submitted this 1st day of August, 1906.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of August 19, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to participate in this fund, or how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 35,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Andrew Hannon, for Edward Hannon, his son.

Andrew Hannon, being duly sworn, deposes and says: He is my son and claims through his mother as well as through me. Her name is Jennie Hannon, before marriage Pettiett. She is about 48 years old. She lived in the Illinois District. She was enrolled by the Dawes Commission, Cherokee Roll #16335. He was enrolled before this in 1896 and pretty nearly every enrollment. She was not living in '51. She got her Indian blood through father and mother both. Her father was an Old Settler, Bill Pettiett. Her mother, Emily Pettiett, I think came from the old nation. She was an Emigrant. She had a brother by the name of Jack Cookson; sister Betsey or Betty Cookson. She got her blood from her mother. Her mother was Jennie Cookson. I do not know that her people were ever associated with any other tribe of Indians.

Mr. Walter Smith,

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter of August 21st, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to participate in this fund, or how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 36,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined, no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Hon. Guyon Miller,

Special Commissioner,

Sir:-

I have your letter under date of March 25th., 1908 relative to my application to participate in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, and note the several questions asked therein.

In reference to your first question as to where the partent thro whom I claim resided in 1834-35, I am unable to give this information, as I was very young when my father died - My information is that he was brought here from Tennessee or Georgia, his name was Rider Sanders.

My grand-mother on my fathers side was Ollie Raincrow or Ollie Cochran - she went by both names, and I am unable to tell whe she lived in 1834-35.

Neither my parents or grand-parents were slaves. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission as a Cherokee Freedman opposite Roll No. 2701, but had always been enrolled previous to that time on the Cherokee Rolls, as a Cherokee, and drew money with the Cherokees. I am now 38 years of age.

Respectfully,

Josie C. Derrick,

Nowata, Okla.

Josie L. Derrick,

Madam:

Relative to your application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees, you are the parent through whom you claim resided in 1904-5, if living at that time.

Here have your grandparents on the rolls always been enrolled in 1904-5?

If you cannot furnish more proof, you should give names of others who could.

If you are unable to furnish further evidence, your application will be rejected and filed for what it is worth.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

James Bellar, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 46 years of age; was born on the Arkansas and Oklahoma line and after living three years there have spent the rest of my life in Tennessee. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my father. My father was born in the Indian Territory. I know nothing of my grandparents. My mother and mother's parents told me of my Indian blood. He said my father was a half blood Indian. I do not know if my father ever received any Indian money from the government. I do not know if he ever tried to get any Indian money and I have never tried before to get any. My father lived with the Indians. My grandfather went from Tennessee, Dickson County, to the Territory before the war. That was my grandfather on my mother's side.
